Royal Can't Understand All the Fuss

By JOE BENHAM

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—A Negro on the opposing football team is just another player as far as the University of Texas is concerned, Coach Darrell Royal says.

"I can't be for the life of me see what they're talking about," Royal said Tuesday when asked about charges that Texas players hurled racial insults at Syracuse Negroes in the Cotton Bowl last Friday.

In an interview, the Texas coach outlined two reasons he thinks Syracuse is out of line in raising the race issue:

1. Texas turned its Dallas hotel quarters over to Syracuse so Negroes on the New York team could be quartered with the rest of the squad.

2. Rene Ramirez, a Texas player of Latin American descent, was the target of racial abuse from Syracuse players.

"I guess you could say that, all and family."

Mr. and Mrs. Y. C. Coleman returned their grand daughter, Mollie Ann Green, to her home in Dallas, this weekend and visited Mr. and Mrs. Martin Green.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Franklin returned Monday from New Orleans, where he underwent surgery. Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Franklin of Huntsville, Ala. are now visiting them in Hope.

Unit 20 of the National Hairdressers Association met Monday at Marcelle's Beauty Shop. Two films were shown and plans discussed for National Beauty Salon Week.

Circle 1 WSOCS of First Methodist Church meets Monday, Jan. 10, at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Graydon Anthony with 18 members and one visitor present.

The meeting was opened with prayer by the leader, Mrs. B. W. Edwards. Regular business was conducted. The leader announced the next meeting will be a joint meeting with the Guild at the Church.

The devotional was given by Mrs. Cliff Bridges her Scripture being on "Faith." Mrs. J. M. Houston had charge of the program assisted by Mrs. Steve Carrigan and Mrs. Cecil Weaver. Mrs. John Downs was greeted as a new member. The hostess served lime punch, cookies and nuts.

Coming and Going

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Baker of McGregor, Iowa will arrive this week for a visit with Mr. Baker's mother, Mrs. E. J. Baker.

Mrs. John Arnold and Mr. and Mrs. Evan Wray returned Sunday from Evanston, Ind., where they were the holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hazzard

DOROTHY DIX

Husband Beat Her — She Lives In Fear

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I was married on my 15th birthday. My husband was 18 and for a while we were very happy. Then he started hitting me. At first I forgave him when he'd say he was sorry but after a while I couldn't. The reason I finally left was because when he hit me with his hands I wouldn't yell, so he took a strap to me and then choked me until I could hardly breathe. I left him shortly after and started suing for a divorce.

My mother kept nagging and fighting with me so much that when my husband asked me to come home, I went back to him. He hasn't hit me again but I'm so afraid of him that I cringe when he gets mad. I sure don't love him and I don't see how he can love me when he almost killed me. I would divorce him but I don't want to go back to my mother.

Could she make me live with her if I got a job and was good? She said she could. I am now 18. Am I being stupid by not being able to forgive my husband? I'm very lonely for someone to love. Is there anything wrong in that? — Young and Lonely

Dear Young and Lonely: As a rule I am opposed to divorce but there are times when it is justified. Any husband who beats his wife is beyond the pale. If yours has done it before, he will do it again. No good can come of a marriage based on fear. At 18 you are legally of age and free to lead your own life. Your mother has no right to lead it for you. Get a job and start over — by yourself.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I am a girl of 15, have three little sisters and live in a fairly small house. Is it ever permissible for me to entertain my boy friend in my room? We have no den and the girls disturb us crying. Also my record player is in my room. My mother and I have been wondering about this. I want to do the right thing, so will you please advise me? — Just Wondering

Dear Just Wondering: Sorry, but the answer is not for a young girl to entertain her boy friend in her bedroom, no matter how justifiable the circumstances, is to risk the loss of her good name. Can't you move your record player into the kitchen or dining room? Maybe your mother, who sounds like an understanding person, would baby-sit in your bedroom with your sisters on the nights your boy friend calls. If he's worth cultivating, he'll value you all the more.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I am a mother at 19 and have a daughter seven months old and am expecting another one in April. My sister-in-law has done a lot for me and I appreciate it deeply. She has four daughters from one to five years old.

Before I married I baby-sat a lot for her and still do. She asks me at least once a week to baby-sit. I have tried many times to tell her no, but can't. My daughter is a very fussy baby and it is hard to try to watch five children when you're not used to it. I blow up at my husband and am crabby the rest of the day. My husband feels the same as I do but won't tell his sister either. You would think I was a baby-sitting agency then right," Ramirez said when asked about Royal's statement. He declined to elaborate.

Royal said Ramirez told him Monday "he had some pretty complimentary things said to him during the game."

Asked about Syracuse claims that Texas engaged in unfair tactics, Royal said, "I don't know what they had in mind. I've seen movies of the game and of course I was at the game and I don't see that either team was dirty."

On the play that threatened to touch off a full-scale brawl between Texas and Syracuse late in the first half, Royal noted "Syracuse drew three penalties on one play."

"They were the ones who were penalized on the play, not us," he said.

Precautionary Landing by Airliner

NEW YORK (AP)—An Eastern Airlines DC7 passenger plane with 88 persons aboard made a precautionary landing at Langley Air Force Base in Virginia early today after one of its four propellers had gone out of control, the airline reported. The airliner was en route from Miami to New York.

Union Scored a Major Victory

NEW YORK (AP)—The United Steelworkers Union scored a major victory in its contract settlement with major steel companies, Iron Age magazine said today. Another plane was dispatched to Langley to bring the passengers here.

Sooners Smart Under Period of Probation

By JIM KENSIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The University of Oklahoma, already smarting from its worst football season in 13 seasons, now faces a period of indefinite probation imposed by the executive council of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn.

And the mighty Sooners, three times national champions under the genius of Coach Bud Wilkinson, are practically powerless to do anything about the stiff penalties imposed Wednesday.

Under the terms of the probation, Oklahoma cannot participate in any post-season football games and cannot appear on any NCAA-controlled TV programs. No other sport is involved.

This will cost the university, perennial Big Eight football champion, a possible berth in the Orange Bowl and its share of the $200,000, which participating teams in a nationally televised regular-season game now receive.

All this is gone for an indefinite period unless Oklahoma can convince Arthur L. Wood, a booster of the university's athletic program, that he should divulge financial records of a recruiting drive.

Wood, who lives in Oklahoma City, administered an athletic fund which, the NCAA said, was used for improper aid to at least one athlete and improper recruiting of football players.

The fund existed in the period

Real Action Occurred After Fight

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—There was as much action in the Chicago Stadium ring after the fight Wednesday night as there was during it. Unbeaten Carl Hubbard of Philadelphia was awarded seventh-round technical knockout over Stefan Redl, a former refugee from Hungary who now lives in Passaic, N.J.

The decision had chain reaction. Redl's manager, husky Lou Duva, made a bull-like rush into the ring, furiously protesting to Chairman Frank Gilmer of the Illinois Athletic Commission, sitting at ringside.

The sudden ending sent the 470 fans into fits of boos.

Redl had been knocked down in the sixth round with a mandatory eight count while on his knees. When he arose, he waded into Hubbard with lefts and rights.

Hubbard belted Redl with a combination and Redl became groggy. By the bell, however, he seemed to have snapped out of it.

Between rounds, Hubbard's handlers treated him for a bloody well under his left eye while Dr. Living Slott of the commission was looking into the eyes of Redl.

"This man is too dazed to continue," Slott said.

Redl was restrained from answering the bell and the fight ended.

Duva then vented his rage. Gilmer and Commissioner Lou Radzienski were so angered by his outburst inside the ring, and before a nationwide television audience, that they ordered Redl's purse held up and told Duva to appear before the commission today.

Hubbard, who was outwitted by Redl, 147 pounds to 148½, now has 19 victories, 15 by knockouts, and two draws.

1952-54 The NCAA investigated Oklahoma in 1954-55 and on Oct. 26, 1955, the university was placed on probation for a two-year period. No additional sanctions were imposed.

But the NCAA said it has now discovered it did not have the full information on the recruiting fund at that time or the Oklahoma penalty might have been different.

Now, the NCAA said in effect, if Wood will disclose complete details of the fund, the association will review Oklahoma's case.

Wood, the NCAA said, has consistently refused requests to make known the records of the fund on the grounds that he would jeopardize his own position.

Wednesday night Wood said he considers the matter a closed issue, that NCAA rules were not violated and that "as a certified public accountant I would be liable to a $10,000 fine for disclosing such information on a confidential basis."

Hope Juniors Advance in Emmet Meet

By TEDDY JONES JR.
Hope Star Sports Writer

The Hope Junior High School Bobkittens advanced to the semifinals of the Emmet Junior Invitational Tournament by defeating the Waldo Juniors in the quarter finals last night by a score of 44 to 20.

A strong second half saw the Kittens outscore Waldo by a 14 point margin to pile up the largest score to date by the local Juniors.

Waldo jumped to a quick lead but the Kittens tied the score at 10 all at the end of the first quarter. In the second quarter, the Kittens found Hope leading 17 to 10 and at the end of the third the Juniors Cats were ahead 28-20. The Hope lead was cut to four points with four minutes to go but the young Kittens rallied fast to pull away by a 44 to 20 margin at game's end.

David Porterfield, the Bobkitten center, was high scorer with 14 points followed by Murphy with 11 for the Jr. Cats. Other to break into the scoring column were Dan Jones with 8, Purdie with 7 and McLarty with 4.

Waldo scoring was evenly distributed with Watkins, Horn and O'Daniel scoring 8, 7, and 6 for their team.

Tonight at 7 the Bobkittens play Emmet in the first game of the semi finals. The second will find Prescott going against Bodow.

The Senior High School Hoops, boys and girls, journey to Waldo tonight for a pair of games postponed from Tuesday due to the weather.

Think's Rail Strike May Be Averted

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell is optimistic but not at all sure that a railroad strike can be averted, a spokesman for Mitchell said today.

The spokesman was asked to comment on a Detroit News story that Mitchell after more than 30 meetings with rail management and unions had obtained a pledge to submit their fight over "featherbedding" to committees for study and recommendation.

Mitchell's aide said Mitchell held several meetings some months ago but the sessions failed to achieve agreement. The way was left open, however, to renew the study later after the current rail labor controversy is ended.

Man Guilty of Selling Stolen Outboards

PIGGOTT, Ark. (AP)—A jury found Arthur C. Silas, about 35, guilty of selling stolen outboard boat motors and fixed his punishment at 10 years in prison yesterday.

Billy Joe McConnell of Malden, Mo., and Roy Griffey of Bernie, Mo., charged in the thefts, testified against Silas, a Piggott barber.

They said they sold four stolen motors to Silas for $75 each. The motors were recovered.

Silas denied he bought the property from McConnell and Griffey, both in the nearby 20s. He said he purchased the motors, three of which he later resold, from a Sikeston, Mo., resident. To his knowledge they were not stolen, he said.

McConnell and Griffey testified they stole two motors from boats on the Black River near Poca, Montas; two at Wappapello Lake near Poplar Bluff, Mo., and two from the Joe Hefner store at Quin, Mo.

Silas bought the first four, knowing they were stolen, the youths said. They said they hid the last two, and these disappeared.

Silas was charged with receiving and disposing of stolen property.

Also charged in the thefts are Dollies Adams of Poca, Montas, a half brother of Silas; Jerry Knapp of Malden, Mo., who now is in a mental institution at Farmington, Mo., for observation, and another man not yet arrested.

Larceny and related charges are pending against the defendants in both Arkansas and Missouri, officials said.

Silas was the first to be tried. Officials said that Silas several years ago was tried and acquitted at Cape Girardeau, Mo., in connection with a bank robbery at Fisk, Mo.

Was Threatened, Says Negro Congressman

NEW YORK (AP)—An anonymous caller has threatened the life of Rep. Adam Clayton Powell Jr. (D-N.Y.), apparently because of the Negro congressman's charges that police are discriminating against Negroes in making policy-gambling arrests.

The call, in a male voice, was made to the office of Ruben J. Fattone, an automobile sales executive once known unofficially as the "mayor of Harlem."

Powell has accused the police of ignoring white operators of numbers games while arresting Negro operators. He has been producing names of some white players.

The police have denied Powell's charges.

LaSalle and Villanova Looking Good

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Philadelphia, home of the Liberty Bell, and good basketball teams, has another couple of hardwood dandies this season in Villanova and LaSalle.

Representing 50 per cent of the nation's skimpy list of four major unbeaten, both fattened their streaks Wednesday in a double-header at the Palestra.

Villanova, maybe the tougher of the two, made it eight in a row, with a 87-65 rout of Duquesne after LaSalle had run its unbeaten string to seven by drubbing Canisius, 82-69.

Add Temple, Penn and St. Josephs. (Pa.), the latter beaten only by top-ranked Cincinnati, and you have five good reasons why the Philadelphia Story of basketball is a strong one again.

Ed Diddle got his 701st coaching victory at Western Kentucky, 86-65 over DePaul; Dayton won its ninth in 12 starts 54-51 over Xavier (O.); Temple (Pa.) whipped Pitt, 82-74 and Holy Cross (7-2) downed Massachusetts 82-58. Marquette romped 96-64 over St. Norbert (Wis.), and NY crushed Fairleigh-Dickinson, 82-44.

Maine won its 10th without a loss 73-39 over Bowdoin, and Virginia nailed its second straight Southern Conference victory, 73-65 over Richmond.

Toledo (8-1) whipped Kent State 73-68, and once-beaten Army and Navy won again—the Cadets over Colgate 91-86 and Navy over Gettysburg 64-61. Virginia restored an 83-71 thumping of VMI. Syracuse (4-2) handed Fordham its fourth straight loss, 84-61 as Sandy Sals hit for 13 points and Pete Chudy 17. Fordham's John Coleman led scorers with 20.

Georgetown (DC) with five players in double figures, upset George Washington 86-82, and Seton Hall downed Baltimore Loyola 66-59.

The schedule of Solunar Periods as printed below, has been taken from John Alden Knight's Solunar Tables. Plan your days so that you will be fishing in good territory or hunting in good cover during these times, if you wish to find the best sport that each day has to offer.

The Major Periods are shown in boldface type. These begin at the time shown and last for an hour and a half or two hours thereafter. The Minor Periods, shown in regular type, are of somewhat shorter duration.

day. Police in all countries affected kept up their hunt for the paintbrush smearer and also sought to determine whether there was any undercover world organization linking them.

A top commentator on Moscow radio said Wednesday the anti-Semitic outbursts in the United States and Britain are about as dangerous as a "slight cold to a healthy person."

Some Jewish leaders have declared that the outbursts smacked of a revival of Nazism, and showed signs of an underground fascist movement. Others have branded the anti-Semitic displays as the work of hoodlums, malcontents and crackpots. There also have been suggestions that the Communists sparked the outbreak in West Germany to discredit Adenauer's government.

A West German government spokesman said Wednesday their investigations had failed to uncover evidence of an organized campaign against the Jews in Germany.

Preacher Accused of Sex Acts Still Free

KOKOMO, Ind. (AP)—The Rev. Clinton Bell, accused of illicit sex relations with women and girls in his congregation, escaped indictment Thursday, but it was disclosed that his church has fired him.

The Howard County grand jury adjourned without taking any action against Bell, who is free on $7,500 bond on an affidavit charging assault and battery with intent to gratify sexual desires.

Officials said four girls subpoenaed to testify before the grand jury had left the state.

Bell's attorney filed a motion to quash the criminal affidavit and also a motion for a change of venue.

Otha Pitner, a local farmer who identified himself as a minister of the Church of God of the Union Assembly, told newsmen Bell was dismissed during the Christmas holidays.

MOP Request Hearing Finished by ICC

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission has concluded a two-day hearing here on Missouri Pacific Lines' request to drop the last two daily passenger trains between Kansas City and Little Rock.

Twenty-nine witnesses testified Tuesday and yesterday, most of them opposing the service cut. Protesting witnesses said dropping the trains would result in economic harm and public inconvenience in the areas served.

The ICC begins another hearing on the same matter at 9 a.m. tomorrow in Coffeyville, Kan.

State governments of Arkansas, Oklahoma, Kansas and Missouri were represented at the hearing here, along with other interested parties from these states.

Missouri Pacific claims it lost $124,234 in the Kansas City to Little Rock operation in the first 10 months of 1959. It says the route has been operating at a loss for years.

Arkansas cities represented at the hearing included Fayetteville, Smith, Van Buren, Ozark, Russellville, Clarksville and North Little Rock.

Man Jumps Into River But Rescued

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A Rogers man who is a patient at the North Little Rock Veterans hospital jumped into the icy waters of the Arkansas River this morning but was pulled out by rescuers.

Merle Rallison, 35, told police he had intended to drown himself because "life just didn't seem worth living away from my family."

He said he changed his mind about suicide after getting in the water.

Rallison was rescued by prayermen of the American Bridge Co. after he had swum and floated about a half mile. The firm is building a new bridge here.

After first aid he was returned to the hospital.

A hospital spokesman said he had no privileges.

Lighter Side of Opening of Congress

By DICK WEST
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — It is not every day that a fellow gets to see the first flag raised at the new Senate office building. If he also gets to ride the new Senate subway on its maiden voyage, his cup runneth over, or at least smilith a few drops.

I participated in such an event, double-header Tuesday, and my club, a paper carton I brought along from the Senate restaurant, sloshed all over my note paper. Fortunately, I had one of those view pens that write under coffee. Reading between the dark brown stains, I can make out from my notes that two U.S. senators braved a frosty wind to take part in the flag-raising ceremony.

This honor fell to Sens. Dennis Chavez (D-N.M.) and Styles Bridges (R-N.H.) because they are chairman and ranking GOP member respectively of the commission which supervised the erection of the building.

Red Nose From Cold

In view of all the criticism the commission has absorbed because of the expense and inconvenience of the building, the privilege of hoisting the first flag was small enough compensation for their service.

The senators were getting red-nosed from the cold before a phalanx of photographers, who seemed to be in charge of the ceremony, finally permitted Chavez to run up the flag. Despite a strong breeze, the banner, once aloft, refused to wave. It barely flapped.

Then the Rev. Frederick Brown Harris, Senate chaplain, led us in reciting the Pledge of Allegiance. As we all went inside for the main event — the formal opening of the 1,700-foot subway tunnel — which links the new office building to the capitol.

The subway project, which cost more than six million dollars, or roughly $6,000 a foot, also has caused some eyebrow-raising among the economy-minded, such as taxpayers. But Chavez and Bridges, in their ceremonial remarks, assured us it was worth it.

Chavez snipped a red, white and blue ribbon across the tunnel entrance and 36 of us climbed aboard the rolling steel — two shiny electric-powered cars with green carpets and bouncy brown foam rubber seats.

Felt Like Ben Hur

In his opening prayer, Chaplain Harris likened the cars to "swift chariots of democracy." To me, they looked more like rollerasters. But I did feel a bit like Ben Hur as we went scooting along over a sound-proofed roadbed at speeds up to 17 miles an hour.

There was a rush of wind on the face and the recessed, indigo lighting along the air-conditioned tunnel was blurred before the eyes. The cheers of the crowd left at the terminal faded in the distance. A lady next to me nearly lost her hat.

The historic run took 52 seconds. I regret to say that the car on the other track got there first.

Leaving this underground elegance, I went over for a comparison ride on one of the famous old Senate monorail trolleys which are being replaced by the new subway. In a few months, these faithful conveyances will be nothing but museum pieces.

Their seats are hard and their wheels are noisy, but I'm sort of old to see them go.

Living Facts of Life in Arkansas

By BOB HARRIS.
Associated Press Staff Writer.
Overheard on a downtown Little Rock street corner during Tuesday's snowstorm:

"This is duck weather — duck inside and stay there."

The snow delighted kids, frustrated drivers and produced this comment from one man recently removed to Little Rock from the far northern tier of states:

"In Montana, this would be sort of a late fall."

Two Christmas stories worth repeating from Pine Bluff.

Seems a lady got a fancy copper cake plate for Christmas. It was pretty, but the cover didn't fit. She struggled a while, then decided the giver must have made a bad buy.

So back to the store she trotted with cake plate and prepared speech ready for the clerks. The sales clerk was equally baffled at trying to fit the cover onto the glass plate. She referred the lady to the clerk in charge.

"This happened once before," smiled that official. "Try turning the dish over."

The complainer did as told—to discover that those four little knobs were legs, not something for the cover to fit over. She picked up her cake plate and stole silently away.

And Mr. and Mrs. Elgie Goss entered the Christmas entertaining season minus the family silver. Hunted all over the place for it. Finally called police to report the theft.

Came the end of the holiday and an explanation—with some red faces.

Seems the Christmas tree was a little short. And what had Mrs. Goss used to raise it? The silver chest, naturally—only she had forgotten it when she went to get out the silverware for entertaining.

Calvin Cox, a writer for the Atlanta Constitution, moved into Arkansas in picking two of his 19 "smallest news stories of the year."

Here they are, exactly as he reported them:

A lawyer cross-examining a witness at trial in Ozark, Ark., said "I hear you drink sometimes." The witness glared. "You heard wrong," he replied. "I drink all the time."

"The State National Bank in Texarkana, Ark., was filled with baskets of flowers congratulating new President James M. Robertson."

"What's going on?" a woman customer asked. "We've got a new president," a vice president told her. "We have?" she exclaimed. "What happened to Eisenhower?"

Robert Wright of Forrest City is pretty sure he holds the record for the shortest tenure as Kiwanis Club president.

He resigned one minute after he was installed.

Twasn't a change of heart. He's moving to Crossett, but took the job after his election to the Kiwanis office several months ago.

Anti-Jewish Incidents Denounced

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.
Religious leaders today voiced abhorrence at the global rash of anti-Jewish incidents. They called for firmer commitment to principles of brotherly love among all men.

The plea came from high-ranking churchmen, both in this country and abroad.

They described the widespread anti-Semitic acts as an offense to all faiths.

There also were appeals for social measures and fuller educational efforts to erase vestiges of prejudice and racism, particularly in Germany.

"I regard the anti-Semitic incidents as a disgrace for the entire German people," said Bishop Otto Dibelius, of Berlin, stalwart battler through the years against both nazism and communism.

He is titular head of Germany's Evangelical Lutheran Church, and his diocese spreads into both East and West zones.

The spate of painted swastikas and Jew-denouncing slogans in public places began in Germany 14 days ago, and has since erupted in Britain, the United States, South Africa, Italy, Australia, Norway and Austria.

Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, Presbyterical minister and president of the National Council of Churches, said that "some of these things merely are another form of juvenile delinquency."

Dr. Blake said people of all faiths must see that there is not a "return to the public expressions of racial hatred such as we had worldwide during the Hitler period."

The Rev. Dr. F. Eppling Reinartz, of New Rochelle, N.Y., secretary of the United Lutheran Church in America, called the incidents anti-Christian as well as anti-Jewish.

In Rome, Vatican sources cited Roman Catholic Church teaching: "deploring any act of intolerance."

The church's archdiocesan weekly in Boston, the Pilot, made this appeal: "Before all else we must express in plain Christian charity our solidarity with the Jewish community and demonstrate that love that binds us together as members of the same human family."

Rabbi Joachim Prinz, president

SALMON AND LOBSTER DISHES POPULAR WITH NEW BRUNSWICK FOLK

NEW BRUNSWICK has some of the most celebrated salmon streams in North America — the Miramichi and Restigouche, just to name two. New Brunswick lobsters from the cool waters of Northumberland Strait, the Baie de Chaleurs and the Bay of Fundy are the delight of gourmets every where.

Mrs. Robert H. Tivy, whose husband is general superintendent of transportation for the Canadian National Railways and also an enthusiastic salmon fisherman, has her own recipe for Salmon Supreme:

Bring to a boil in 6 cups water: 1 1/2 teaspoon salt; 1/2 cup vinegar; 1/4 cup diced carrot; 1/4 cup diced celery; 1/2 cup chopped onion; 4 whole cloves. Add 4 pounds salmon, wrapped and tied loosely. Cook tenderly, simmering slowly. Allow 10 minutes per 1 inch thickness. Remove to platter, cool slightly, unwrap and skin. Mix 1/4 cup melted butter, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, pinch of rosemary. Pour over salmon slowly. Garnish with parsley, tiny pickled beets, sliced cucumbers, etc.

George Stiven, the general passenger agent for the Canadian National Railways at Moncton, N. B., does a lot of traveling through the Atlantic Provinces and seldom returns home without bringing a few lobsters with him. And that's nothing Mrs. Stiven likes better than to whip up her own brand of "Lobster Delight" when George gets home.

This is how Mrs. Stiven makes it:

2 tablespoons butter
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 cup milk
1 cup chicken stock (canned or chicken bouillon cube)
1/2 cup lobster meat, diced
1/2 cup thin cream
1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

Melt butter, stir in flour, salt and pepper. Add milk gradually, chicken stock, lobster and onion. Simmer for about 20 minutes, stirring often. Remove onion. Add cream and sauce. Heat thoroughly. To each serving, top with a teaspoonful of butter, sprinkle of paprika and sprig of parsley. FNS

RUM CAKES POPULAR WITH HOUSEWIVES IN MANITOBA PROVINCE

While there isn't a gourmet in the world who isn't familiar with Winnipeg Goldeye, a fish that is exclusive to the waters of Manitoba, housewives of the province pride themselves on their rum cakes as the dessert of all desserts. There's nothing quite like a Manitoba rum cake anywhere else in the world, they say.

While the Goldeye-smoked fish, is a specialty on the Canadian National Railways' dining cars operating in the Western Provinces, the Manitoba rum cake, however, is to be had in almost any private home in the province. Here's how the Prairie Province housewives make their rum cakes:

1/2 cup butter or margarine
1/2 cups brown sugar
1 lb. dates
1 cup walnuts, coarsely chopped
1 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 eggs, well beaten
1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon rum (or rum flavoring)
1 cup boiling water

Grease an angel cake or 8 x 8 x 2" pan. Cover bottom with greased wax paper. Cut up dates, chop walnuts. Cream butter and brown sugar until well blended; then add the dates and nuts to this mixture. Add the baking soda to boiling water, pour over the creamed butter, brown sugar and dates. Stir until cool. Add 2 eggs, well beaten. Gradually stir in sifted flour and salt, beating until smooth. Add rum flavoring. Turn batter into prepared pan. Bake 1 hour and 15 minutes at 300° F.

Cool in pan on wire rack for 10 minutes. Remove from pan. Frost with rich butter icing, flavored with 1 teaspoon rum flavoring and 1/4 teaspoon mace. If desired, decorate with drained, halved maraschino cherries. FNS of the American Jewish Congress, expressed belief that the world wide chain of incidents was "the work of an international conspiracy."

PEARL TREASURE AND SPUD EYE DIMPLE IN TOP 'ISLAND' SPOT

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND — "THE island" to folks who live there — is a tiny sea-girt province set in the blue waters of the Gulf of St. Lawrence. P.E.I. is noted not only for its beauty, but for its food — food from the sea and food grown in the province's rich red soil.

Using oysters as the main ingredient, Mrs. Frank Pellerin, wife of the manager of The Charlottetown Hotel in the provincial capital city, says "Pearl Treasure" is a favorite with her island friends. Here is Mrs. Pellerin's recipe:

PEARL TREASURE
1 1/2 pint oysters
2 eggs
4 tablespoons milk
4 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper

Drain the oysters. Beat eggs well. Add the milk and beat again. Dip each oyster in the egg mixture, then dip each slightly into seasoned flour. Fry in deep fat 375° F. for 2 1/2 minutes. Serves 5.

Of course, Prince Edward Island potatoes are known the world over, so using P.E.I. spuds, Mrs. George Greenwood, wife of the Canadian National Railways' superintendent at Charlottetown, says she and her friends make "Spud Eye Dimple" like this:

Parse 6 medium-sized potatoes and cut into thin slices. Place in alternate layers in greased baking dish with dots of butter and sprinkling of flour (about 2 tablespoons in all). Salt and pepper to taste. Each layer may be also sprinkled with 1 teaspoon minced onion. Add warm milk until it may be seen through top layer. Cover and bake in 350° F. oven 1 1/2 hours. Remove cover during the last 20 minutes baking. FNS

Leap Year Is a Headache for Bachelors

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Nothing worries bachelors more than leap year.

"Many girls take it quite seriously," one complained. "Some get unbearably aggressive. I wish I knew a sure way to fend them off."

Actually there are a number of methods by which a wily bachelor can remain carefree and single even in the face of the most determined girls' marital campaign in the month ahead. But it does take ingenuity.

Here are a few tested tips on how a resourceful single can ward off the most persistent wooer:

1. If you have a girl named Valerie, tell her that you are going to marry her. Valerie will be so shocked and hurt that she will never bother you again.
2. The next time you see a girl's house, bring along your laundry.
3. Always go out on a date with a girl can't get a date, but can't very well ask you to marry her.
4. If she asks you over for a good old-fashioned home-cooked meal, show up carrying a banana lump.
5. Quit your job and become a hermit for the rest of the year.
6. Pick a fight with a cop and go to jail.
7. Keep asking your girl how

What Stocks Brought Big 1959 Gains?

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—What stocks brought their holders the biggest gains in value in 1959?

There were 32 of the 1,992 common stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange that ended the year 32% or more higher than at the start, although only one ended at the year's high.

In addition there were 17 that had risen $20 or more in price before being replaced on the list by new issues after stock splits.

That is figuring gains by the rise in dollar value during the year. Many of the 52, however, were high priced stocks, so that while they now pay their owners much more than 12 months ago if he wants to sell, their percentage gain isn't as impressive.

Some low priced stocks, unable to add as much as $20 to their dollar price, nevertheless had larger percentage gains than did their gilded cousins.

Let's look at some of the biggest gainers, as measured in dollars.

Top performer was Rohm & Haas. The chemical company stock sold at $780 Dec. 31, 1959. This was $243 more than its closing price the previous year. The percentage gain was 30.8.

Second was Motorola. It closed at $172 for a gain of $112.50, or a percentage increase of 106.6 for the year.

A favorite of traders was Texas Instruments up better than $77 for the year for a percentage gain of 132.8.

Polaroid was up $81.50 or 81 percent. General Time added $74 to the price of a share, or 22.8 percent. Minnesota Mining & Mfg. gained nearly $62 during the year. Cessna Aircraft's price went up $54.50.

Woolen Text went up $30.25 to end at $94, its percentage gain was 32.3.

American States had a busy year, ending at $83.50, for an increase of $41 or 98.6 per cent. Clumco Glass added $43. American Home Products $42.50 and the top stock.

Western Electric at $109.50 was up $46.25. Boon Aircraft added $45.50. Cook Equipment $34. General Tire a lot better than $27. John Morrell nearly $32. Adams-Willis and American Steel Rumble around $31.75 each. Packman Instruments $31.25; and Eber Aircraft $30.

Advancers by $20 to $25 were: Peitz, Addressograph, Aldens, Al-I Chemical, American News, Fritsch & Stratton, Check, Mrs. Jones, Clever, Continental Steel, Dox Chemical, Electric Storage Battery, Emerson Electric, Fort, General Electric, General Foods, General Telephone & Electronics, International Nickel, Jones & Langhly, Morgenthau, Linotype, Midland Enterprises, Miami Copper, Minneapolis Honeywell, Owens Corning Glass, RCA, Reliance Electric & Engineering, Simons Saw & Steel, Socon Chemical, Timken Roll, Booring, Union Carbide, and Plough.

Actus from other states travel two and a quarter million miles on Arkansas highways each day.

well she is doing at her job and what her prospects of advancement are.

So tell her that if it were a big day, you would and feel like taking a short trip from your home to her home. No matter how late she shows up, you will always show up at least 15 minutes later. No woman can stand being kept waiting by a man in public.

10. When you go into a revolving door together, wait and let her make the first push. Nothing infuriates a civilized woman more.

11. Take up martinis drinking. Any man powerful enough to say "Yes" to a fourth dry martini is not enough to say "No" to any number of women.

12. Beware of borrowing money from an altar-gouled girl. To do this could be your greatest possible mistake during leap year.

Advise for Discontented TV Cowpokes

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Guy Madison has some advice for those discontented TV cowpokes: Stop griping.

Guy is no older than some of the Western stars who are revolting against their contracts, yet he's a veteran of the TV range. For nine years he starred as Wild Bill Hickok.

"Those fellows don't know how lucky they are," he observed. "Sure, they'd like to be making more money. But most of them were just hanging around Hollywood before they landed their roles. They weren't any great shakes in the picture business," he said.

Now they're getting terrific exposure before the public, they're making good salaries and the studio is taking care of their private life.

The discontented gunslingsers might argue that such talk is okay for Madison because he made his pile from TV. Not true, says Guy. "Ours was the first film series—the first Western, at any rate."

he said. "Nobody knew that so much money would be in a series, and I signed for a straight salary."

Madison has had enough ups and downs in the picture business to take a long-range view. After a flash as a bobbysox idol, he was dropped and didn't work for two years.

"I made a deal with Warners for 'Charge at Feather River.' I did the picture for $15,000. I didn't care that it was so little money. I wanted to prove to the studios that I could do features."

"After that, my salary went up to $100,000 a picture."

Now he's leaping back into the sage brush with a new TV series, as yet untitled.

Beef and Lamb Spotlights at Markets

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Beef and lamb, after taking the back seat to holiday favorites, turkey and ham, grab the spotlight this week on the nation's meat counters.

Widely featured as weekend specials are round rib roasts, sirloin and porterhouse steaks, leg of lamb and lamb chops.

Beef, lamb and pork are in good supply and are expected to remain so this year. Prices vary widely with locality.

Fish and fowl are prominently among specials along the Atlantic Coast with fresh cod steaks featured in New York, swordfish in Boston, and sea scallops, halibut steaks, Boston mackerel and shrimp in Philadelphia.

This is a good time to be serving eggs. Prices are down almost everywhere. Eggs lead the Department of Agriculture's list of plentiful foods for January. The season increase in production is under way. Indications are, however, that production will not equal the record volume of a year ago because the number of potential layers is below the 903 million on hand at the start of 1959.

The department says other plentiful foods now include apples, oranges, cranberries, sweet potatoes and onions.

Best buys in vegetables are beans, broccoli, cabbage, carrots, Chinese cabbage, endive, escarole, lettuce, Florida celery, medium yellow onions, radishes, spinach, sweet potatoes and Eastern potatoes.

You'll have to dig deep to pay for cucumbers, green onions, peppers, tomatoes, Western russet potatoes and egg plant.

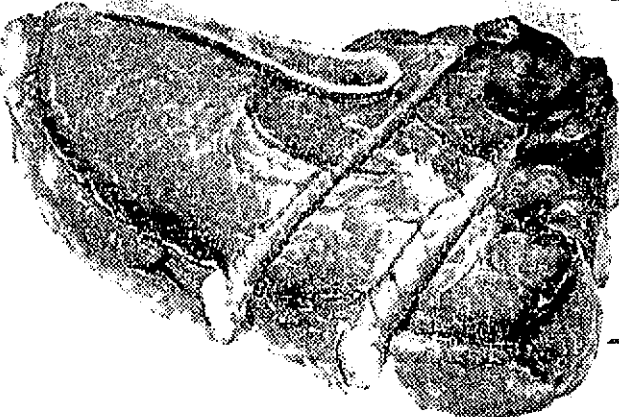

Best fruit buys are Florida oranges and grapefruits and Eastern strawberries.

Figure Five, on Highway 45-50 in Crawford County, received its name from a large "5" cut in an oak tree.

No Hint Now of Horror in Dachau

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Feature Editor

About a half hour out of Munich, in rolling farm country which eventually gives way to the Alps, lies the pleasant little Bavarian town of Dachau.

Houses of yellow stucco nestle close together in the manner of German villages, and there is no hint of the horror that went on there 20 years ago. Some of the villagers claim that even at the time, they had no knowledge of the fact that thousands upon thousands of Jews were lying in the gas ovens of Dachau.

The gas chambers still stand as a horrible memento to Germans of the sins of Adolf Hitler, whose Nazi wastika emblem once more is appearing on synagogue walls, on Jewish shrines, and on the homes of some of the 30,000 Jews remaining in West Germany.

Some six million Jews died at the hands of the Hitlerites before the Nazis finally were crushed by the World War II Allies in 1945.

and today in West Germany there are laws to insure that never again can anti-semitism run rampant as it did under Hitler.

Hard Core Remains
Anti-semitism is a subject from which most Germans recoil, for of all the excesses of Hitler, that left perhaps the greatest stain.

But there has remained a hard core of anti-semitism. German officials insist it does not represent by any means the majority feelings of West Germans, and is, in fact, probably no worse than in other nations which do not have a history of Nazism.

On a visit to West Germany last spring, this correspondent was told of anti-semitic incidents, and of the severity with which German Courts deal with such.

But, perhaps because of its recent history, there is a difference of opinion in German officialdom and among Jews themselves as to how these incidents should be treated.

Restaurant Owner Bankrupted
A Jewish acquaintance illustrated one side of the argument when he told a Jewish restaurant owner who returned to Germany after several years in Israel and attempted to resume in his old business. It prospered until his religion became known and then a boycott finally bankrupted him. The case was not one that could be taken to the courts, and the acquaintance who told the story was grateful that it could not be.

"It just starts something else," he said.

But there are others who believe action of the courts should be even more severe.

Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's regime has been accused of turning its back on rising anti-semitism, but rejects the charge.

The regime feels itself caught between two fires. If it outlaws neo-Nazi or nationalist parties, it drives them underground. If it curbs freedom of speech, it is accused of being anti-democratic.

This Incident Is Very Hard to Prove

MILWAUKEE, (AP) — L. V. Barnes is trying to find someone, besides himself, who saw a black bear blowing a horn in a parked car New Year's Eve.

Barnes ran this ad in the Milwaukee Journal's classified personal column Tuesday.

"Will other persons who saw a black bear blowing a horn in a car in a parking lot on E. Capitol Dr. about 2:30 a.m. New Year's Eve please contact L.V. Barnes at Broadway 6-4897."

Barnes insisted, "I know a big black hairy bear when I see one, and I saw one. There were lots of people. We all saw it. I just want to find some of them so I can prove it. I don't know why my wife won't believe me."

CHICKEN POT PIE AS THEY MAKE IT OUT IN ONTARIO

Housewives of Ontario say that chicken pot pie is the most popular home-cooked dish in the province.

Louise Moore, the food editor of the Toronto Telegram, recently polled Ontario housewives and came up with a generalized recipe for Ontario chicken pot pie. Miss Moore has turned this recipe over to the Canadian National Railways with the suggestion they feature this dish on diners operating through the province as something "typical" of the country.

Here is Miss Moore's recipe:
Choose a good sized boiling fowl — at least five pounds — and cut it up as for fricassee. Put in pot with a sliced onion, a few celery leaves, a sliced carrot and a dozen peppercorns. Cover with cold water — bring to boil and reduce to simmer. Cover tightly and simmer until meat is tender. Time will depend upon age of bird — anywhere from two to two-and-a-half hours, maybe longer. When chicken is tender, remove from broth and skim off fat. Strain. Season with salt and pepper and a little paprika. Pick up dumplings from package and drop into broth. Return chicken pieces to broth and bring to the boiling point.

The pieces of chicken should be above the surface of broth so that the dumplings rest on the pieces rather than in the broth; otherwise, they would become soggy. Make up dumplings from package and drop into broth. Return chicken pieces to broth and bring to the boiling point.

Sometimes hot biscuits are served with the chicken instead of dumplings.
